The Central Coast Ambient Monitoring Program (CCAMP) is the central coast’s regionally scaled water quality monitoring and evaluation program. The purpose of the program is to provide scientific information to interested parties, to protect, restore, and enhance the quality of the waters of central California.

CCAMP Data Navigator

For Questions and Technical Support E-mail: CentralCoastDataNavigator@gmail.com